

EN2303 Analyzing Contemporary English

Course Aims & Objectives:

- To enable students to understand the nature of language and to develop the skills needed to analyze language data.
- To enable students to understand the phonological organization of English.
- To enable students to understand how pronunciation contributes to communication.
- To enable students to understand the problems of English pronunciation encountered by non-native speakers.
- To examine approaches to the teaching of English pronunciation in the ESL classroom.
- To improve the students' own pronunciation of English.

Units: 3

Level: B2

Medium of Instruction: English

Keyword Syllabus:

Description of English Phonology. Segmentals. Supra-segmentals. Difficulties and Common Errors. Pedagogical Implications.

Teaching Pattern:

Duration of course: 1 semester

Current mix of lecture/tutorial/laboratory, other: 3 hours lecture

Assessment Pattern:

Examination duration: 2 hours

Percentage distribution of marks for coursework, examination, other: 60% Coursework, 40%

Exam

Grading pattern: Standard (A+AA- ... F)

Pre-requisite(s): Nil

Pre-cursor(s): Nil

Equivalent Course(s):

From the old curriculum: EN0301 English Phonetics and Phonology

Related Links

Department of English