5. Assessment Rubrics

(Grading of student achievements is based on student performance in assessment tasks/activities with the following rubrics.)

Assessment Task	Criterion	Excellent (A+, A, A-)	Good (B+, B, B-)	Adequate (C+, C, C-)	Marginal (D)	Failure (F)
Critical Responses	Organization and Cohesion	The organization between sentences, paragraphs, and ideas is effective and smooth. The writing is cohesive and logically organized.	Organization supports thesis. Transitions between ideas are clear and functional. There is a sense of progression as the argument unfolds.	Elements of Marginal and Good	Some signs of logical organization. May have abrupt or illogical shifts and ineffective flow of ideas. Generally very choppy.	Ideas are not clearly contextualized. Unclear organization.
	Language and Style	Language is used effectively and with a high level of precision.	Almost all sentences are error free. There is a sense of precision in word choice. The writer successfully uses complex sentence structures to convey ideas.	Some minor mistakes remain but these do not confuse the reader or impede meaning. The writer attempts to use complex grammatical patterns to convey ideas.	Many sentences have mistakes, which causes strain for the reader. The meaning is sometimes distorted or unclear.	There are several mistakes in grammar and word choice, often impeding communication and causing severe strain for the reader.
	Thesis / Argument	The essay contains well thought-out ideas that are clearly expressed, original, and supported.	Thesis and purpose are clear and appropriate for the writing task. There is a sense of originality in the purpose.	Elements of Marginal and Good	Thesis and argument are vague or only loosely related to the writing task.	Reader cannot determine thesis & purpose OR thesis has no relation to the writing task

	Engagement with the relevant texts	Shows a deep understanding of the relevant texts. Sophisticated reading/interpretative skills apparent.	The discussion of the primary texts is sufficiently detailed. There is a sense of the writer interpreting the text.	Elements of Marginal and Good	Some discussion of the relevant texts, but mostly in general and broad terms. Lacks details.	Very little if any engagement with the primary texts
--	------------------------------------	--	--	-------------------------------	--	--

Assessment Task	Criterion	Excellent (A+, A, A-)	Good (B+, B, B-)	Adequate (C+, C, C-)	Marginal (D)	Failure (F)
Group Presentation	Depth of understanding	Excellent and thorough understanding. In-depth analysis & thorough discussion. Shows insightful and subtle ideas. Presentation demonstrates 'reading for exploration'.	Very good understanding. Very good analysis and discussion. Shows some insightful and subtle ideas. View points are well supported.	Fair understanding. Adequate analysis and discussion. Ideas may be common but mostly with support.	Rather limited understanding and some misinterpretation. Rather limited view points presented. Discussion is not always logical or with support.	Poor understanding of the text and a lot of misinterpretation. Limited view points presented. Ideas are mostly without support.
	Use of language and knowledge of relevant literary terms	All speakers are competent and demonstrate highly accurate and sophisticated use of language (e.g. style, idiomatic use of language, collocation). Highly appropriate use of literary terms. Ideas are coherent and very easy to follow.	Most speakers are competent and demonstrate accurate use of language. Appropriate use of literary terms. Ideas are easy to follow.	Adequate and appropriate use of literary terms, but only one or two speakers demonstrate good and accurate language use. Ideas are generally easy to follow.	Rather limited or inappropriate use of literary terms. Most speakers do not demonstrate accurate language use. Ideas are often not easy to follow.	Poor accuracy and lack of or frequent misuse of literary terms. Ideas are difficult to follow.
	Team Work	Dynamic team work. All members show great support to one another. Almost seamless transition between speakers/parts	Good team effort. Members work closely together to put all parts together.	Satisfactory team effort. Most members show good support for one another. Parts are generally well connected.	Limited team effort shown. Some members may not participate actively. Some parts are not well connected.	An overall of lack of support for members and organization or transition is not evident.

	Creativity and Originality	Shows very high level of creativity and originality in the presentation while being faithful to the text. A pleasure to watch.	Shows high level of creativity and originality in the presentation while being faithful to the text.	Not much creativity and originality in the presentation. Some ideas may not be related to the text at times	The presentation lacks creativity and originality. A lot of ideas are not related to the text.	The presentation is very flat. Most ideas are not related or relevant to the text.

Assessment Task	Criterion	Excellent (A+, A, A-)	Good (B+, B, B-)	Adequate (C+, C, C-)	Marginal (D)	Failure (F)
Participation	Participation in in-class activities (such as group discussion and writing tasks)	Makes significant contribution to in-class discussion and completes writing tasks satisfactorily.	Makes occasional contribution to in-class group discussion and completes the writing tasks satisfactorily.	Seldom makes contribution to in-class group discussion; completes most of the in-class writing tasks	Little evidence of participation in class; completes very few in-class writing tasks	Fails to sufficiently participate in in-class activities (including discussion and writing)
